

Mayne Island Improvement District

Respectful Workplace Policy

POLICY OBJECTIVE

The MIID believes in promoting and maintaining a workplace environment in which all employees and contractors are treated with dignity and respect.

PROCEDURE

The Mayne Island Improvement District (MIID) is committed to a respectful workplace, free from Discrimination, Sexual Harassment or Bullying and Harassment. The District considers workplace Discrimination, Sexual Harassment and Bullying and Harassment serious offences and will not tolerate behavior which may undermine the respect, dignity, self-esteem or productivity of any employee. Complaints under the policy will be addressed in an impartial, timely and confidential manner where possible.

Conduct contrary to this policy may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment. Off duty conduct which has an impact in the workplace may be subject to the requirements of this policy.

This Policy prohibits retaliation or reprisals against anyone who in good faith (an honest and reasonably held belief) reports violations to this policy or participates/cooperates in a complaint investigation process even if sufficient evidence is not found to substantiate the concern. Retaliation or reprisal is considered to be discriminatory and is subject to disciplinary action by the MIID up to and including termination of employment.

Good faith investigations under this policy are not grounds for a Bullying and Harassment complaint. Where it is determined that a person has made a complaint in bad faith or with the intent to harm another and/or has misrepresented what is going on in the workplace, then formal disciplinary action may be taken against the person.

SCOPE OF POLICY

This policy applies to all employees of the MIID including contractors, paid-on-call members, casual employees and volunteers.

This policy applies to interpersonal conduct at the workplace itself, or during work-related activities or events including, but not limited to, off-site meetings or conferences, incident locations, social situations related to work or workers' homes if there are real or implied consequences related to the workplace.

This policy applies to interpersonal conduct, written communications, and all forms of electronic communications.

DEFINITIONS

Bullying and Harassment means any inappropriate conduct or comment, including electronic, by a person toward an employee that the person knew or ought to have known would cause the employee to be humiliated or intimidated, or any other form of unwelcome verbal or physical behavior which by a reasonable standard would be expected to cause insecurity, discomfort, offence or humiliation to an employee or group of employees, and has the purpose or effect of interfering with an employee's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment.

Respectful Workplace Policy

Bullying and Harassment excludes any reasonable action taken by an employer or supervisor relating to the management and direction of employees or the place of employment.

Discrimination means discrimination within the meaning of the BC Human Rights Code based on a person's race, colour, ancestry, place of origin, political belief, religion, marital status, family status, physical or mental disability, sex or sexual orientation, age or criminal conviction unrelated to the employment or intended employment of the person.

Discrimination permitted by the BC Human Rights Code is not a breach of the policy.

Sexual Harassment means unwelcome conduct that is sexual in nature, which may detrimentally affect the work environment or lead to adverse job related consequences for the victim of the harassment.

It is NOT disruptive and disrespectful conduct to:

- a) comply with professional, managerial or supervisory responsibilities to evaluate and report on the performance, conduct or competence of employees;
- b) express reasonable opinions freely and courteously; or
- c) respectfully engage in honest differences of opinions.

EXPECTED STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

All employees, members of the Board of Trustees, and appointed members to board committees are expected to: promote and maintain a respectful work environment; conduct themselves within the spirit and intent of this policy; and contribute towards a safe, welcoming and inclusive work environment free from Bullying and Harassment, Discrimination, and Sexual Harassment.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Persons involved in a complaint under this policy shall ensure that the matter is kept confidential in accordance with the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act. Any unwarranted breach of confidentiality may result in disciplinary action against those responsible. Information is only released on a need to know basis during the investigation after consultation with the Chair of the Board of Trustees. Documentation pertaining to a complaint is maintained in confidential storage under the control of the Corporate Administrator. There shall be no records of the complaint placed in the personal files of the Complainant, the witnesses or that of the Respondent when the allegations are not proven and there is no disciplinary action. Disciplinary warnings or actions taken against the Respondent for infractions under this policy however, are placed in the personal file of that employee. Documentation pertaining to a complaint will only be released when the law requires the release of the information.

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Managers and Supervisors are expected to:

- a) ensure the principles of the policy are reflected in the execution of duties, operational guidelines and practices within their area of responsibility;
